POLITIK-HER: SCHOOL OF POLITICS FOR YOUNG WOMEN

Empower young women to drive change in their communities, by providing them with a supportive intercultural, inclusive, and sustainable learning environment.

Co-funded by the European Union

2023-1-RO01-KA220-YOU-000158279

ABOUT THE PROJECT

The project aims to empower young women in developing cohesive, inclusive, and sustainable communities, through: multi-stakeholder roundtables, mentorship, and action plans to develop skills, knowledge, and confidence.

- 2 years long: October 2023 - September 2025
- 5 countries involved (Italy, France, Romania, Cyprus, Sweden)
- 6 partners

OBJECTIVES

- Empower young women to drive change in their communities, by providing them with a supportive intercultural, inclusive, and sustainable learning environment.
- Promoting active citizenship, youth entrepreneurship, and reinforcing links between policy, research, and practice.
- Involve policy-makers in promoting gender equality.
- Challenge gender stereotypes through offline and online campaigns.

HOW?

Through a combination of transnational training, mentoring, community-based pilot actions and policy dialogue, the project has empowered young participants to design and implement initiatives aimed at building inclusive and democratic communities.

WHO?

Young women aged 16–22 years old, project partners and associates, political and economic leaders, individual experts involved as mentors and coaches (both internal and external to the project's partners) and diverse stakeholders (both public and private, both profit and no-profit).
